

2018-19 Fellowships for graduate students in the Arts and Humanities

Arts and Humanities Graduate Students: How do you put your skills into practice?

Become a CHiP Fellow | Explore Career Diversity

Information Session:
4pm Monday March 26
145 Hagerty Hall

The Center for the Humanities in Practice (CHiP) announces 2018-19 CHiP Fellowships for humanities graduate students interested in exploring diverse post-doctoral careers. Fellows will engage in project-based work with a variety of off-campus partners. Join CHiP Director David Staley as he introduces the Fellows Program and its relation to employment opportunities for humanities graduates.
